Pro-life teens: you are invited to Camp Joshua, a four-day intensive training in Salem designed to equip enthusiastic young Christian activists. Keynote speaker is Alan Shlemon from Stand To Reason. As a bonus, graduates of Camp Joshua will be provided either registration for the 2012 Oregon Right to Life Conference or registration and lodging at the 2012 National Right To Life Convention in Washington, D.C. For more information, see www.campjoshua.net or talk to Anne Meador, a recent participant. To register, see Pastor Dale (pastordale@aol.com). Deadline is February 23.

Mark your calendars: our annual BCC Performance & Display Night will be held Saturday, May 5 at 6:30pm, right here in the gym. All BCC students are encouraged to participate. For more information, contact Nancy Meador at (541) 779-0225 or ndm44@aol.com.

The Pear Blossom is coming! Ever thought of participating? There is a distance for EVERYONE, walkers or runners: 1 mile, 5K, 2 mile, and a 10 miler. It's tons of fun and a great community event. Let's have more fun by getting ready together. We'll meet each Saturday morning between now and April 14 (Pear Blossom!) in the parking lot nearest the amphitheater at Bear Creek Park. Just 7-8 am. Every skill level, every age warmly welcome. Experienced, inexperienced: it makes no difference. Mainly it's just to encourage each other: you don't have to have any experience or be a runner. Walkers, children, older saints: everybody is welcome. We'll pray together briefly and then spend an hour or so walking and running together by skill levels. No pressure, no pain, no worries. BCC Coaches will be on hand to encourage you along. It'll be fun: try something new, and enjoy the Pear with hundreds of others from our Valley.

The Justice Conference is a two-day annual event to promote dialogue around justice related issues such as human trafficking, slavery, poverty, HIV/AIDS and human rights, featuring internationally acclaimed speakers, hundreds of humanitarian organizations and dozens of pre-conference workshops. It's this week at the Convention Center in Portland. A contingent from Bear Creek Church will be attending, and representing Joni and Friends in a display booth! Read more at thejusticeconference.com or contact Nancy Meador (NDM44@aol.com).

BCC hosts many small groups throughout the week: find a complete list at our website: bearcreekchurch.org. Write us at bearcreekchurch.org@gmail.com if we can be of any help.
