Easter: Myth, Hallucination, or History?

That the Easter faith in the Resurrection of Christ is the core of Christianity can hardly be denied. Whether that conviction is rooted in myth, in hallucination, or in history that the Easter faith in the Resurrection of Christ is the core of Christianity can hardly be denied. Hugh Schonfield in Those Incredible Christians (1968, p. xii) has declared: "The revelations of Frazer in The Golden Bough had not got through to the masses.... Easter as Myth

The theory that there was a widespread worship of a dying and rising fertility god-Tammuz in Mesopotamia, Adonis in Syria, Attis in Asia Minor, and Osiris in Egypt-was propounded by Sir James Frazer, who gathered a mass of parallels in part IV of his monumental work The Golden Bough (1906, reprinted in 1961). "I have tried to show that theories attributing the Resurrection of Christ to the borrowing of mythological themes, to hallucinations, or to alternative explanations of the empty tomb are improbable and are also inadequate to explain the genesis and growth of Christianity."

TEN THINGS YOU MUST KNOW ABOUT THE RESURRECTION OF JESUS, ALL FROM ONE CHAPTER

I CORINTHIANS 15

Christ died for us and rose again as anticipated by the scriptures

"Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, and . . . He was buried, and . . . He was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures."

(1 Corinthians 15:3-4)

2. Jesus verified his resurrection by large public appearances

"After that He appeared to more than five hundred brethren at one time, most of whom remain until now, but some have fallen asleep."

(1 Corinthians 15:6)

3. Because Christ has risen, we are not still in our sins or despair

"If Christ has not been raised, your faith is worthless; you are still in your sins."

(1 Corinthians 15:17)

4. Because Christ has risen, our afflicted lives are not pathetic

"If we have hoped in Christ in this life only, we are of all men most to be pitied."

(1 Corinthians 15:19)

5. We who trust Christ will be raised from the dead at Christ's second coming

"Just as everyone dies because we all belong to Adam, everyone who belongs to Christ will be given new life." (1 Corinthians 15:22-23)

6. Christ already reigns over the universe

"For He must reign until He has put all His enemies under His feet. The last enemy that will be abolished is death."

(1 Corinthians 15:25-26)

7. Our resurrection body will be imperishable, glorious, powerful, and spiritual

"Our earthly bodies are planted in the ground when we die, but they will be raised to live forever. Our bodies are buried in brokenness, but they will be raised in glory. They are buried in weakness, but they will be raised in strength. They are buried as natural human bodies, but they will be raised as spiritual bodies."

(1 Corinthians 15:42-44)

8. Death now has no sting and will be swallowed up in victory

"But when this perishable will have put on the imperishable, and this mortal will have put on immortality, then will come about the saying that is written, "Death is swallowed up in victory. Death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?" (1 Corinthians 15:54-55)

Christ suffered for sin and satisfied the law for us

"The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law; but thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." (1 Corinthians 15:56-57)

10. Therefore, do huge amounts of Christ-exalting work because all of it counts for eternity!

Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your toil is not in vain in the Lord.
